CONTEST RULES

1. Fee: $8 per photo entered. Limit six photos entered per person. No professional photographers, please. A professional is defined as one who makes a living or substantially supplements his/her income with photography.

2. PRINTS in color or black and white must be 8"x10" or 11"x14." Digital photos must be equal to or larger than 1200 pixels on the long side. DO NOT MOUNT PRINTS ON MAT BOARD. Just mail us your prints. Be sure to package carefully so photos will not be damaged in the mail. Digitals should be submitted on CD.

3. All entries will be judged on a per category basis by magazine staff and a non-staff professional photographer. Judging will be based on subject, creativity and composition. Entries will be displayed to the judges without he/she knowing who entered what photo. Pictures and entry forms will be numbered upon receipt. The contest judges will not know who the winners are until the numbers are matched with entry forms after judging. Decision of the judges is final. Photographs will be scored by points and the photos with the most points in each category will win.

4. Submission of your photographs as a contestant grants Ranch & Rural Living Magazine rights to unlimited use of your photos in articles and advertisements on its two magazines and on its website, ranchmagazine.com. Any person requesting external use of the photos for parties other than Ranch & Rural Living, Meat Goat Monthly News and ranchmagazine.com will be referred to the photographer.

5. Please include one entry blank with each photo submitted. Photos must be original works by the photographer listed on the entry form. If a child's photo is entered in the Youth section, the child's name needs to be on the entry blank. Note: Please notice on the entry blank a space is provided to include the title of the photo or a short descriptive phrase (or you may use a number or filename) so we can match photos with entry blanks.

6. DEADLINE: JULY 1, 2010.

7. All reasonable care will be taken in handling entries. Ranch & Rural Living Magazine cannot be held responsible for damage to or loss of photographs. Submission of entry constitutes entrant's consent to and agreement with these rules.
